

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

HARJASPAL SINGH,

Plaintiff,

v.

16cv579 WJ/WPL

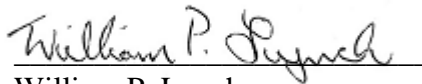

U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION and
BANK OF AMERICA NATIONAL ASSOCIATION,

Defendants.

ORDER

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b)(2) requires me to enter a scheduling order within 90 days after any defendant has been served with the complaint or within 60 days after any defendant has appeared, unless I find good cause for delay. In this case, there is a pending dispositive motion that would, if granted, resolve all or substantially all of the case and would significantly narrow the scope of necessary discovery. (Doc. 10.) I held a Status Conference on August 22, 2016 to discuss whether discovery should commence. Under the circumstances, and after discussion with Ms. Brown, who was the only party that called in to the conference, I find that the pending dispositive motion constitutes good cause to delay entry of a scheduling order. I will enter an Initial Scheduling Order upon resolution of the dispositive motion. The parties may contact my chambers should circumstances change.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

William P. Lynch
United States Magistrate Judge

A true copy of this order was served on the date of entry--via mail or electronic means--to counsel of record and any pro se party as they are shown on the Court's docket.
